(Text & Detail Study)

- 1 Read the extract carefully and answer the questions given below it :

Skvortsov flew into a rage and gave the beggar a merciless scolding. The ragged fellow's insolent lying aroused his disgust and aversion, was an offence against what he, Skvortsov, loved and prized in himself : kindness, a feeling heart, sympathy for the unhappy. By this lying, by his treacherous assault upon compassion, the individual had, as it were, defiled the charity which he liked to give to the poor with no misgivings in his heart. The beggar at first defended himself, protested with oaths, then he sank into silence and hung his head, overcome with same.

2 Read the following extract carefully and answer the questions given below it :

But not because of its magnificence
Dear is the Casuarina to my soul;
Beneath it, we have played; though years may roll,
O sweet companions, loved with love intense.
For your sakes, shall the tree be ever dear.
Blent with your images, it shall arise
In memory, till the hot tears blind mine eyes !
What is that dirge - like murmur that I hear,
Like the sea breaking on a shingle - beach ?
It is the tree's lament, an eerie speech,
That haply to the unknown land may reach.

- 11 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

As the dreaded examinations crawl to a halt, students look forward to the much awaited "Creative Outlets", the summer camp is conducted over a short period of four to five weeks involving interesting and fun-filled activities. The colourful spectrum of summer camps provides a wide variety of activities which include artistic skills, such as painting, origami, art, music, craft and also spoken English, cookery and computer courses. Not only this, the summer camps keep the child "fit as a fiddle" by importing lessons in yoga, cricket, tennis and swimming, with changing times and trends, parents have become productivity oriented. They want their children to leash through productive play unlike in the past when play was just play. Today the parents want to top the potential of their children to develop their hobbies and talents. The importance of creative play is often underestimated whereas the fact is that art and craft projects can excite even a young child's imagination and promote a sense of great achievement and pride when they show them to their parents.

Summer camps develop a child's confidence and his ideas. They also encourage children to do things on their own. The camps are beneficial for hyperactive and aggressive children as they help channel energies fruitfully by drawing out the best in them. They also promote mutual understanding not only among teachers and children but also bring about interaction between the taught. This provides a good experience for a better future, a future of confidence.

Knowledge is truest wealth, not this which dies-
It cherishes a strange deep peace within.
Unutterably, nor the robber's eyes
Ever shall find it out; to give it is gain.
It then grows most when parted with, and poured
With sleepless hand fills gloriously its lord.
Worlds perish may, knowledge survives their fall;
The wisemen cherish; O kings, your pride recall,
You have but wealth, the inner royalty
Of lordiest wisdom, who will these shall vie ?
